

FULTON COUNTY TRIBUNE.

VOL XXXII NO 43

WAUSEON, OHIO, FRIDAY FEBRUARY 4 1916

IMPORTANT APPOINTMENT

Dr. E. H. Rorick of Fayette Made
Member of Board of Administration
—Qualifications and Efficient Service
Record Won Appointment—
Board Controls Eighteen State Institutions.

Dr. E. H. Rorick of Fayette, was appointed a member of the State Board of Administration by Governor Willis Monday. This board manages and controls the eighteen state institutions which includes the hospital for the insane, epileptics, the institution for the feeble minded, the penitentiary, reformatory and the boys and girls industrial schools. The pay roll of the employees under their control amounts to more than a million and one half dollars annually. The total sum to be expended annually by this board is nearly five million dollars.

The State Board of Administration is composed of four members, more than two of which can belong to the same political party. The law requires that the members of this board shall live in Columbus and devote their entire time to the duties of the office. So Fulton county for the next four years will lose its genial Dr. Rorick. The board has in its custody more than 22,000 persons. There were four aspirants for the appointment, among them being Newton Miller, one of the governor's intimate friends and personal advisers. It was Dr. Rorick's qualifications that won for him the appointment.

Dr. Rorick has spent many years of study in the best medical schools of America and spent one year in Europe at the leading hospitals studying insanity, epileptic and feeble minded cases. In practicing his profession here he was a very successful physician.

For nine years Dr. Rorick served as superintendent of the State Hospital at Athens, where he made a record for economy and efficiency that attracted the attention of the State. In one of the issues of the Ohio State Journal appeared a large picture with the words below it, "The watch dog of the State treasury."

From Athens Dr. Rorick went to Columbus, where he became superintendent of the Institution for the Feeble Minded, where for two years winning much praise for efficient service.

To be an efficient member of the State Board of Administration requires more than possessing the knowledge of how to properly treat and care for the unfortunate entrusted to its care, important as that is, it requires that the member possess executive and financial ability in a marked degree. Dr. Rorick meets all these requirements and Gov. Willis is to be congratulated upon this appointment. It is the State of Ohio that is being served.

This is one of the most important positions in the State and Fulton county is to be congratulated that she could produce a citizen who could measure up so well to all the requirements. The salary of the office was reduced by the past legislature from $5,000 to $4,000 a year and expenses.

RELEASED FROM CANADIAN ARMY

Dell Johnston, of Delta, has been released from the Canadian army, through the efforts of Representative N. E. Matthews, of the Fifth District. The Canadian government was shown that the boy was only eighteen years old when he enlisted in the Seventeenth Overseas Battalion, and that he was a native of Ohio. He had represented that he was a native of Canada and that he was of age. Johnston's relatives were very much afraid that he would be sent to fight in the European trenches.

BEAUTIFUL LIFE ENDED

Mrs. Anna Houseman Succumbed to Paralytic Stroke at Home of Her Daughter Mrs. Samuel Ruppert on January 27th—Burial in Swanton Monday Afternoon.

In the passing of Mrs. Anna Houseman a beautiful life has gone out, a life beautiful indeed for its cheerfulness and patient endurance, not only in her last illness, but during the years of her invalid life, when those who came in contact with her were impressed with her nature that there will remain lifelong sweet memories.

Ann Elizabeth Woolverton, was born at Lodi, Seneca County, New York, June 17th, 1844. She was baptized in the German Reformed church at Lodi, when an infant.

On November 1st, 1846, she with her parents arrived at Sandusky, Ohio, where they settled on a farm they bought between Sandusky and Milan, near Union Corners. In the Spring of 1859, they moved nearer Sandusky and in 1861 purchased a farm on Columbus avenue and ran a dairy farm into Sandusky and from this point they watched the fate of Sandusky during the trying days of the Civil War. In 1866 they transferred their residence on moving to Vermilion, Ohio, where she and her sister owned a millinery and dressmaking establishments.

In the summer of 1862 she united with the Presbyterian church in Sandusky, Ohio, and was married in Vermilion June 23, 1870, to Frank Houseman, a native of Sandusky, Ohio, who was then employed by the Lake Shore Railway Company as their agent at Swanton, Ohio. They purchased an acre of land near the Swanton station and moved into their home on November 21st, 1870. She transferred to the Methodist church at Swanton, and was as active in church work as she had been in the former places. At the time when she received her severe fall in 1886 when she became an invalid for a dozen years she was chorister in Sunday School, taught a class and sang in the choir in church service.

Three children blessed their home. Mrs. Samuel Ruppert of Wauseon, Ohio; Mrs. L. M. Litchell of Illinois; and Mrs. H. D. Campbell of Fruit Ridge, Michigan. Her husband left her for the great beyond on April 15th, 1888, and she so much appreciated the kindness of her Swanton friends when she was battling with severe bodily pain and praying that she might live for the sake of her children. Her two grandchildren, Bruce and Juva Campbell were a great comfort to her in her later days and she daily praised the Lord for health and strength given her. She died about noon on January 27th, 1916, being seventy-one years, seven months and ten days old. Her great patience, which was always manifested in her long illness, proved her true character. Her illness and never a more peaceful death was witnessed.

Funeral services were held on Monday, a service being conducted by Rev. O. P. Hoffman, at the Ruppert home at 12:30 immediately after which the remains, accompanied by her family and friends were taken to Swanton where services were held at the M. E. church conducted by her former pastor Rev. C. R. Davenport, of McComb, Ohio, assisted by Rev. Holt, present pastor of the M. E. church in Swanton. Interment in Swanton cemetery.

WARNING TO FARMERS.

The prosperity of this community is very seriously threatened. Many of our farmers are in a very serious financial straits and there will be a very short corn crop, with thousands of dollars lost to our farmers. If you are not taken in selecting and testing the best matured seed corn for this season's planting.

In order to help our farmer friends in the only way we can, we are publishing this matter, we are printing in this issue of The Tribune a special illustrated article which thoroughly covers the subject.

This article describes the danger, tells what has brought it about, offers a remedy (or a preventive) in tested seed corn, and shows the farmer how to make the test at no expense. Because we want to see everyone of our country friends simply bulging with prosperity now and all the time we urge them to turn to "Be Sure To Test Seed Corn," and read it carefully.

WILL IMPROVE AND EXPAND.
The Ohio Gas, Light & Coke Company will expend $5,400 on improving their Wauseon plant this coming Spring. The company was authorized last week by the State Public Utilities Commission to increase its capital stock from $250,000 to $300,000. The increased capital will be used to retire $25,000 bonds maturing this year, while the balance will be expended on improvements on the various plants at Napoleon, Montpelier, Bryan, Delta and this place.

The constant increase in the consumption of gas by the patrons has made these improvements necessary.

FOSTER-GEORGE.

On Monday at noon, January 31st, Mr. Leon C. George and Miss Georgia Foster were united in marriage at the Christian church parsonage by the pastor Rev. J. A. Wharton. Both bride and groom are from Delta, where they are well known. They expect to take a wedding trip a couple of weeks and will then be at home in Delta. The good wishes of their many friends are extended to them.

SCHOOL READING TABLE

Magazines and Papers Which Should be Selected for Rural School Reading Table—What Dowell School Has to Say on the Subject—Points for Other Schools.

Having received some inquiries on the subject of a school reading table and thinking that perhaps there are more teachers in the county who are interested in this phase of rural education I will answer in a general way through the Tribune which seems to be a widely read school paper.

The Dowell School has received many letters from other schools. We have always answered them giving the information desired whenever possible. We enjoy this work and it makes a very practical language lesson.

The schools seem to be at a loss when it comes to selecting magazines and periodicals for a reading table. The cost is of course the first thing to be considered. Suppose you have say $5.00 to invest in this phase of school work. We would suggest the following. First the pupils should be taught to become interested in local affairs, to familiarize themselves with home politics and events. So of course the home county paper should be first on the list. Second you should choose a paper or magazine of interest to children and that is clean and wholesome. I would suggest "The Youth's Companion." Third you should choose a good farm paper for farm boys and girls are, and should be, interested in farming. The questions the query department make good questions for the agriculture class. There is a host of good farm papers. Choose one that is an "Ohio" paper. Do not forget the boys and girls in the beginning classes and for them

PRESTIGE

When a check is received bearing the name, "First National Bank", it carries with it prestige and the recipient knows the maker of the check has sound banking connections.

In offering the services of this bank, we are placing at your disposal banking relations that must reflect to your advantage in all your business dealings, which is prestige.

First National Bank

"The BANK-BY-MAIL Bank" Wauseon, Ohio

there is no better magazine than "Little Folks." I am rather doubtful about a daily. The dailies are prone to point much sensational stuff that does not "fit in" with school work. This list will cost about $5.00 that we are supposing you have to invest in a reading table. Of course your magazine should come in the name of "The Youth's Companion." If you haven't a school mail box, a part of your money should be invested in one. We have three complete sets of supplementary readers for the Third Grade and if there is a school in your district Jay's district who would be willing to exchange a set of these sets "Dramatic Readers" for one of these sets of "Third Grade Readers" hand for accidents.

we would be glad to correspond with you on the subject. Next week "The School Library."

GOSSIP OF FASHIONS.

In the communication to The Tribune this week, Mrs. Bottomley, our fashion adviser, describes "a naive and pretty crepe frock" for young women who are in business life and must dress attractively but economically at all times. There is also a description of the latest method of dressing a little girl's hair for party occasions. Both descriptions are illustrated with halftone pictures.

Always keep Hanford's Balsam on hand for accidents.

THE WAR

Its Influence on Business Has a Sinister Effect

The Real Cause of the Continual Rise on Most All Dry Goods Summed Up in One Sentence.

The reason for the increased cost of most materials is directly due to the increased consumption and decreased production and consequent shortage thereof, owing to the huge European fallacy.

Since this Institution is a Public Utility, we endeavor to be friends with Community and advise all friends and customers, give them the benefit of our findings, such as, "The Prices are Going up and to Buy Early as a Protection to Yourselves." And just the minute we mention this foreboding fact, some are wont to think we are unfair, and confront us with this statement: "That's just what drives us out of town to buy our merchandise, prices are already to high, then to mention they are going higher!"

It is Our Purpose to Expose The Real Tenure of Our Institution at All Times

The point that we do make clear and decisive is, that we are not in business merely for a pecuniary consideration, neither just for fun, but because is legitimate, honorable and just.
